

Real Life Center

Here are some tangible ways that the Real Life Center can use the help.

We are providing food to families in need. We have an immediate and urgent need for food. The number of families we are seeing has significantly increased while our food supply is dwindling quickly.

We also are seeking financial donors for food as well as our financial assistance program. We assist clients with mortgage and rent payments as well as utility bills in an effort to keep families in their homes.

Jennifer Nolder

jnolder@reallifecenter.org